

3rd Annual Community Health Education Fair: Frequently Asked Questions

➤ What is this event?

All Brains Belong is reimagining healthcare as community connection. Every year at this event, we:

- Bring resources together in one place so that people can get the support they need
- Bring people together, where everyone can be themselves. There's no "right" way to participate.
- Learn from community members sharing their experiences

➤ Who can attend?

This event is for EVERYONE! People of all ages are welcome.

➤ What are some things you can do at this event?

- Resource fair: 30 organizations will have information tables. You can ask questions, or just take flyers.
- Ask for help: Explain what you need and get directed to community resources.
- Art and rest: Do some quiet crafting or relax in the LimeLite Restoration Zone.
- Watch "community storytelling" presentations about health, education, and work.
- Listen to live music

➤ Where and when does this event take place?

The 3rd Annual Community Health Education Fair is Sat 8/24/2024 from 11AM-3PM on the Vermont State House Lawn. ORCA Media will also "livestream" the concert (12PM) and Community Storytelling (1-3PM)

➤ Where can I park?

Parking is free on Court St. and State St.

➤ Where can I get food?

You can buy food nearby.

- The Capital City Farmers Market is located at 133 State Street until 1PM.
- There are also several restaurants and coffee shops located on State St.

➤ Is this event mobility accessible?

Yes! The resource fair tables are next to the sidewalk paths. The LimeLite Restoration Zone will have a table at an accessible height for wheelchair users.

➤ Is there shade?

Yes, most activities will take place under trees or tents.

➤ Where can I use the bathroom?

There will be a portable toilet ("Porta-potty") to use.

➤ Where can I take a break?

The LimeLite Restoration Zone is a quiet space in the shade.

- Activities for all ages: art, crafts, games, fidgets, and more.
- No pressure to participate. No pressure to make small talk.
- You can meet people, or find a spot on the lawn to do your own thing.
